

The Leadership Initiative

A cross-agency mentorship program for Providers' Council members, designed to support career growth in the human services sector.

The Leadership Initiative aims to:

- Cultivate the leadership qualities of individuals in the human services sector.
- Support emerging leaders through connections to established leadership.
- Foster connection and career advancement while promoting knowledge of the sector.

The Leadership Initiative (TLI) runs from April 2026-April 2027.

Mentors are:

- Individuals with experience in the human services sector, including middle- to upper-level supervisory roles;
- Passionate about supporting emerging leaders to accomplish their professional development goals.

Mentees are:

- Aspiring or emerging leaders eager to advance and grow in the human services sector;
- Individuals willing to listen, learn and gain career guidance through partnership with a mentor
